VIDEOS & PODCASTS WE OFFER

Bringing your talking points for the water cooler Monday through Friday from your trusted 'news side piece.' J Cleveland Payne presents news from the past day covering politics, pop culture, and everything in between, even if the story selection may not line up with the rundown of the previous evening's national newscasts.

A good news commentary podcast goes deep into a subject. J Cleveland Payne loves to give his genuine and unfiltered opinion on the day's news, even if the words that come out of his mouth aren't the most socially acceptable words available. Get a real taste of what Payne usually holds back on when you subscribe to this podcast.

Veteran broadcast journalist and producer J Cleveland Payne takes time to interview interesting people from all walks of life. From the kind of famous to just kind regular people, tune in to eavesdrop on their conversations and learn a bit about yourself as you meet new and interesting guests every week.
